The Redevelopment Commission met on March 11, 2014. By consensus, Jeff Stockman remains President of the Redevelopment Commission, and Shelley Monticue was chosen as Secretary. President Stockman voted to approve the 2013 Report, seconded by Commission Member Tamra Boucher. Motion carried 3-0, and Clerk-Treasurer Monticue submitted the Commission's annual report via the Gateway to the State.

Clerk-Treasurer Monticue submits a payout spreadsheet to the Council regarding banked sick/personal days. She is still doing research regarding short-term disability through Humana.

Clerk-Treasurer Monticue attended a school in Muncie from March 10-13th.

The Town Easter Egg Hunt at the Markle Fish & Game Club Park is scheduled for Saturday, April 12th at 11:00 SHARP. Children will be divided into different age categories from 0-11 years. Rain date is Saturday, April 19th. Please contact Tina Bowman at 758-2650 with any questions.

Town-wide garage sales are Saturday, May 17th, 2014. Town clean-up will be Tuesday, May 20th for metal and Tuesday, May 27th for everything else. Anything over one cubic yard is subject to a $10 surcharge per cubic yard. Tires are also an additional fee. Please don't hesitate to contact the Town Hall at 758-3193 if you have any questions regarding disposal of items.

The following leak adjustments are submitted for approval:

- Markle United Methodist Church, 115B West Morse Street, in the amount of $598.86 for a frozen water pipe in the utility room of its rental property.
- Judith Mower, 305 North Lee Street, in the amount of $119.27 for a leak in her crawl space while she was in Florida. Her son, Troy, found the leak and submitted the explanation.
- Cheryl Thomas, 61A Wilt Street, in the amount of $200.45 for a broken pipe under her rental property.
- Regina Krach, 445 North County Line Road, in the amount of $36.44 due to an accounting error where service was turned off to the property in the middle of January.

Respectfully submitted,
Shelley Monticue, Clerk-Treasurer
